

Stasys Domarkas

1957 graduated from Klaipėda School of Music (now Klaipėda Stasys Šimkus Conservatory).

1957 — 1962 studied at the Vilnius Conservatory, majoring in oboe.

1967 graduated from the Leningrad Conservatory in the class of Ilya Musin.

1967 — 1989 chief conductor of Kaunas Musical Theater, 1980-1985 also director, 1989-1992 - conductor.

1970 he founded a chamber orchestra in Kaunas.

1990 — 1992 Conductor of the Minsk Opera and Ballet Theater.

1993 — 1995 Head of Klaipėda Musical Theater conductor, 1995 — 1998 male conductor and director, 1998 — 2004 theater manager. 1993 formed the Little Lithuania Symphony Orchestra.

He has conducted symphony orchestras in Russia, Latvia, Poland, Germany, the Netherlands and Sweden. Since 1998 Artistic director of the annual opera and symphonic music festival "Musical August at the Seaside". Since 2006 on his initiative the Mykolas Oginskis International Festival has been taking place in Plungė.