

Galina Ehrngren studied at the Conservatory of St. Petersburg.

She has experience of piano teaching in both St. Petersburg and Stockholm.

Rector of the Maestro Academy.

She is the author of several textbooks with piano methodology in focus. Among other things, a textbook for beginners "Pianoresan" which is a combination of Russian classical piano school and newer teaching methods such as practical harmony and auditory theory as well as various forms of music creation such as improvisation. The book has been used in Sweden since 2005.

She has received the Mai von Rosens Piano Teacher Award 2020 which is awarded by the Royal Swedish Academy of Music.