Chenxi Wang was born in September 2012 and won the special prize of CCTV China charm Spring Festival Gala in 2018; Won the first place in the 2019 European Cup International Music and art competition (held in Taiwan); won the first prize in the Shanghai division of the Hummingbird Music Award of the 2020 China Youth Music Competition and the first prize in the national division (Full Score); was invited to participate in the concert at the residence of the German Consulate General and the concert of Tongji University in October of the same year; won the first place in the harp group of the 2020 International Youth Music Competition (Hong Kong); passed the imperial band 8 (highest level) performance examination with 136 points in 2021