Alice is 7 years old and she lives in Stockholm with her family. Alice started practicing piano when she was three and a half years old. Besides piano, Alice has also started to play cello and participate in various group set-up. Music has become more and more important in her life and has also brought so much joy!