

孙正天竹

In 2016, she was admitted to the Affiliated High School of Shanghai Conservatory of Music with outstanding achievements, studied under Professor Yao Fuming of Shanghai Conservatory of Music, and served as the chief of the orchestra of Shanghai Conservatory of Music. For two consecutive years, she sent the Spanish and German art exchanges to the public, and performed with the orchestra in Shanghai Symphony Orchestra Concert Hall, Shanghai Grand Theatre, Beijing Grand Theatre, Fuzhou Grand Theatre, etc. In 2019, she was admitted to the Shanghai Conservatory of Music with the best performance, served as the chief of the horn of the Symphony Orchestra (Group A) of the Shanghai Conservatory of Music, and participated in the series of concerts of the Shanghai Orchestra Performance Season. In 2022, she was admitted by Shanghai Conservatory of Music.

In 2014, she was awarded the Little Golden Bell Award for solo performance in the Third National Orchestra Competition; From 2016 to 2018, she won the professional scholarship awarded by the Affiliated High School of Shangyin, the national scholarship for two consecutive years, and the first prize of the professional horn in the 2021 Vienna "Music Bridge" International Music Competition. In addition, she has received affirmation and guidance from such masters as Christoph Ess, Han Xiaoguang, Jakob Keiding, Eric Reed and Rigaogang in many art festivals and master classes.