

Liu Xinyu: As a tenor, he was admitted to the Vocal Opera Department of Shanghai Conservatory of Music in 2023 with the highest score in his major nationwide. He studied under Professor Fang Qiong, a soprano singer, director of the Vocal Opera Department of Shanghai Conservatory of Music, and doctoral supervisor. In 2012, he was awarded the representative inheritor of the national intangible cultural heritage "Jingbian Running Donkey", and in the same year, he was awarded the Excellent Singing Award at the 3rd Shaanxi Children's Art Festival and the third batch of national new children's song demonstration and promotion activities; In 2013, he was invited to participate in the recording of the CCTV Chinese International program "Happy Chinese". In the same year, he won the "Wenhua New Seedling Award" in the first Shaanxi Province "Shaanbei Folk Song Wenhua Award" competition; Invited to participate in the recording of the promotional video for the 11th Art Festival of the People's Republic of China in 2015; In 2017, he played the role of young Wang Gui in the excellent drama "Wang Gui and Li Xiangxiang" at the 8th Shaanxi Provincial Art Festival; In 2023, won the Gold Award for Ethnic Singing Solo in the Higher Arts School Group at the 15th Singapore International Vocal Competition.